

Your AI launch gets reviewed within days. By people you never briefed.

Here's the 30-day plan. Swipe.

● THE PLAN AT A GLANCE

30 days. Seven moves.

-30 Pick the buyer. Find who they watch.

-21 Early access for 3 to 5 creators

-14 A hard, real task

-7 Answer everything. Fix what breaks.

0 Launch together

+7 Second wave

+30 Repurpose the best moments

Pick the buyer first.

Then find the creators that buyer already watches. Audience before reach.

3 to 5 creators. Real accounts.

No demo builds. No sandboxes made to look good.

A hard, real task.

Not a feature tour. Let them build something they'd actually use.

Answer every question.
Fix what they break.

Their bug reports are cheaper now than in the comments later.

Their videos go live with yours.

Honest. Labelled as sponsored. In their own words.

Second wave. Then repurpose.

Creators who saw wave one want in. Cut the best moments into clips, posts and docs.

THE TAKEAWAY

Your launch video is the claim.

Creator videos are the proof.
