

YouTube rebuilt
sponsorships in September. Most AI
founders missed it.

5 changes, and what to ask for before you sign.

Your next creator deal can be reused, measured and boosted. If you ask.

20

long-form videos

One sponsor read. Up to 20 videos at once.

A One sponsor segment

B Into up to 20 long-form videos

C Targeted by region

D Built-in call-to-action shelf

- Status: still in testing

See the numbers yourself. No more screenshots.

1 Creator posts the partnered video

2 Shares a one-click access code

3 You see the video's performance

Put paid media behind the creator's video.

Your best creator video stops being a one-week post. With the access code, you can boost it like an ad.

Creator Partnerships is live in 20 countries.

YouTube is also putting hundreds of millions of dollars into incentives for agency partners.

Creators get AI help pitching you.

Ask Studio will draft replies to brand briefs and tailor media kits. Expect sharper pitches, and more work telling which creators reach your buyers.

Ask for three things.

1 The brand partner access code

2 Whether dynamic segments are on the table

3 Boost rights written into the deal
